Footnotes:

^{1/} The period covered by any statement begins on the day after the closing date of the last statement filed, or January 1, if no previous statement has been filed.

^{2/} In addition to paper reports, a committee must file electronically with the Secretary of State if, since January 1, 2000, the committee receives contributions or makes expenditures totaling $50,000 or more. For more information, visit the Secretary of State's web site at www.ss.ca.gov.

^{3/} Committees required to file electronically (see footnote 2) must file this report if an independent expenditure of $1,000 or more is made during the period August 9 through November 7, in connection with a state candidate or a state ballot measure being voted on November 7, 2006. No paper copy is required and no copies are required to be filed with local filing officers, including during the late reporting period.

^{4/} File the October 5 and October 26 pre-election statements if contributions of $1,000 or more are received or contributions or independent expenditures totaling $500 or more are made during the period covered by the statement.

^{5/} A committee that makes a payment or a promise of payment of $50,000 or more for a communication that clearly identifies a state candidate being voted on November 7, but does not expressly advocate the election or defeat of the candidate, must file Form E530 electronically with the Secretary of State. The report must be filed within 48 hours of making or promising to make the payment. No paper copy is required and no copies are required to be filed with local filing officers.

^{6/} Political party committees that receive a contribution totaling $1,000 or more, or make a contribution of $1,000 or more to a candidate or ballot measure committee being voted on November 7, 2006, must file a late contribution report within 24 hours. Committees filing the special online independent expenditure reports (see footnote 3) are not required to file late independent expenditure reports on paper during the late reporting period. Paper filings of late contribution reports are still required, including with local filing officers.

Additional Notes:

- Except for deadlines that fall on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, there is no provision in the law for extending a filing deadline. Late statements are subject to a $10 per day late fine.
- All statements are public documents.
- State candidates and committees that make contributions to state candidates are subject to contribution limits. Some committees that feature state candidates in advertisements are also subject to contribution limits.
- Payments made for “member communications” by a political party committee (including central committees) must be reported as if the payments were contributions or independent expenditures.

As of the date of this publication (5/05), the 2005 Campaign Manual Addendum contains the most recent information on campaign disclosure requirements. Legislative amendments to the Political Reform Act may go into effect that will change information contained in the 2005 Addendum and this filing schedule. Be sure to check the FPPC web site (www.fppc.ca.gov) for updated information.
